New Patterns of Change* exhibition at Naples Botanical Garden

NAPLES, FL – May 6, 2024– Naples Botanical Garden is proud to host Patterns of Change, on view through June 30 inside Kapnick Hall. This juried exhibition of artwork by members of The Batik Guild features artists from Southwest Florida and around the world. The group of international artists created work that visualizes environmental changes experienced or observed in their personal lives; inspiring change and rousing hope in our communities.

Patterns of Change is included with Garden admission and offers guests the opportunity to enjoy air conditioning while exploring the Garden's 170 acres. Every Garden ticket or membership purchase supports Naples Botanical Garden's conservation efforts.

Special opportunity! Meet the Artist & Live Demonstrations:

Guests are invited to join one of the 25 featured artists inside Kapnick Hall to ask questions and engage in conversation while they demonstrate the centuries-old wax-resist dyeing technique known as batik.

This relaxed drop-in opportunity is also included with Garden admission; no registration is required.

Select Saturdays, 10 a.m. – 12 p.m.:

- June 1 – Muffy Clark Gill
- June 22 – Leigh Herndon
